"MILK OF HUMAN KINDNESS" SHOWN

Commendable Instance of Neighborly Regard-Recompense For Fire.

Ogden, Dec. 7 .- From North Ogden comes a story of brotherly love and the "milk of human kindness," such as is seldom heard. About two weeks ago, the recently completed barn and chicken houses of Bisaop James Ward, containing valuable stock and other containing valuable stock and other property, took fire and burned completely to the ground. The loss was very great to the bishop, representing much hard work and an expenditure of some $1,500. A few days after the fire, the bishop's neighbors, without previously consulting him, arrived at the Ward home in a body, bringing loads of building material which they soon converted into a structure exactly duplicating the destroyed barn and sheds. Everything was entirely reconstructed and Bishop Ward feels that words are entirely inadequate to express his gratitude and appreciation.

SENSATIONAL ANSWER FILED TO DIVORCE SUIT

Ogden. Dec. 7.—Mary E, Smith has filed an answer and cross-complaint in the action for divorce recently instituted by her husband. Leonard Smith. Mrs. Smith makes a number of sensational complaints, principal among them being that during the years 1906 to 1908, her husband forced her to homestead a piece of land on the Unitah reservation which necessitated her being away from her home in Ogden. During this time, Mrs. Smith alleges that her husband associated with Ida Falker and that he even kept her at his home. In 1908 she claims she was driven from home and compelled to go to Salt Lake and live with her mother and was forced to work for her own support. The couple were married at Spanish Fork, Dec. 15, 1890. During their early married life, they jointly accumulated property of the value of about $5,000, being an undivided interest in the Smith Bros. Mattress & Carpet company of this city. Mrs. Smith asks that the action of her husband be denied and that she be given a divorce, costs of the suit and alimony as the court deems proper. Following the filing of the complaint, the court issued an order citing Smith to appear Dec. 17 and show cause why he should not pay temporary' alimony and other costs and be restrained from disposing of his propary alimony and other costs and be restrained from disposing of his prop-erty.

New Edition

Now for the first time you get a complete set of all Mark Twain's writings at just exactly one-half the price they have ever been sold before. This is a new edition, just as complete as the old one, which still sells, by the way, at $50.00. This new edition is only $25.00—for the 25 volumes.

It had been Mark Twain's ambition to have his books in every American home, and he made a great personal sacrifice to bring about this remarkable opportunity-for the first time In the history of publishing, copyrighted books are sold at the price of non-copyrighted books-the chance will not come again.

But for Mark Twain's action this would have been impossible. Never before has a copyrighted library set of a standard author's works been issued at such a low figure.

His Complete Works— 25 Beautiful Volumes

Brander Matthews says: "Mark Twain will be included in that group of writers headed by Molière and Cervantes. With the exception of Count Tolstoi, Twain was the greatest of recent modern writers, and will be handed down to posterity through the trio of his works 'Huckleberry Finn,' 'Tom Sawyer,' and 'Pudd'nhead Wilson.' Twain is a greater stylist than Stevenson, or Thoreau, and his 'Man that Corrupted Hadleyburg' is one of the finest works in English literature." Mark Twain himself wrote a preface to this edition. Brander Matthews has written the biographical criticism of Mark Twain and his work. There are portraits of amination, carriage free, a set of MARK TWAIN'S WORKS, Author's National Edition, twenty-five volumes, cloth binding. It is understood I may retain the set for five days, and at the expiration of that time, if I do not care for the books, I will return them at the author at periods when the different books were in procyour expense. If I keep the books, I will remit $2.00 a month until the full price, $25.00, has been paid, or, within thirty days, $23.75 as payment in full.
